

SYED A. AZEEM

Associate

Professional Experience

Syed assists the team in performing restructuring/transaction support, financial analysis and modeling, cash flow forecasting, industry research and other support on both creditor and debtor assignments.

Prior to joining AEG, Syed was a Senior Analyst covering Strategic Investments and M&A at Cushman & Wakefield, where his responsibilities included underwriting strategic investments, creating models, covering due diligence, structuring and valuation, as well as drafting NDAs and IOI/LOIs.

Previously Syed was an Associate at Goldman Sachs, where he conducted due diligence on initial and secondary offerings and PIPE investments. He also provided support for principal transactions across a wide range of industries, including identifying restrictions & exemptions for block trades and accelerated share repurchases, resizing trades, determining applicable disclosures, and conducting industry/market research for equity transactions.

Syed is fluent in both English and Urdu.

Education

- University of Illinois, B.S., Finance

Recent Industry Experience

- Commercial Real Estate
- Industrial
- Consumer Retail
- Healthcare